Despite having moved from its registered and announced address, if the Company fails to have its new address registered in due course, this will constitute a cause for its termination.

TERM

Article 6:

The company has been established for an indefinite period of time starting from the registration and announcement of the articles of association

REGISTERED AND ISSUED CAPITAL

Article 7:

According to the provisions of the Capital Markets Law number 2499, the Holding has adopted authorized capital system, and has shifted to the said system as per the permission of the Capital Markets Board dated 29.03.1994 and number 299.

The registered capital of the Holding is 4,000,000,000.-(four billion) Turkish Liras divided into 4,000,000,000 (four billion) shares each having a nominal value of 1.-(one) Turkish Lira.

The permission for the registered capital ceiling granted by the Capital Markets Board is valid for a period of five (5) years between 2017 and 2021.

Even if the permitted registered capital ceiling is not reached at the end of 2021, in order for the Board of Directors to make a decision on capital increase after 2021, it is compulsory for the Board to get authorization for a new date by obtaining the permission of the Capital Markets Board, not more than 5 (five) years for either the previously permitted ceiling or a new ceiling amount.

In case the said authorization is not obtained, the Holding is deemed to have been discharged from the authorized capital system.

The issued capital of the Holding in the amount of 2,616,938,288 Turkish Liras has been paid in full, and divided into 2,616,938,288 bearer shares each having a nominal value of 1.-(one) Turkish Lira.

2,450,000,000 Turkish Liras of the issued capital have been paid entirely, and the remainder has been covered nominally as the consolidated assets of Doğan Yayın Holding A.Ş., which were transferred to our Company via the merger which took place under our Company through the entire “take over” of Doğan Yayın Holding A.Ş. by our Company, with all its assets and liabilities, pursuant to Article 134 and the subsequent relevant articles of the Turkish Commercial Code No. 6102; Articles 19 and 20 of the Corporate Tax Law No. 5520, Articles 23 and 24 of the Capital Markets Law No. 6362 as well as the other provisions, and the “Communique on Merger and Spin-off Transactions” (II-23.2) and the “Communiqué on common principles for material transactions and exit rights” (II-23.1) of the Capital Markets Board, and the provisions of the other relevant legislation.

The shares representing the capital are monitored via registration as per the principles of registration, and no new shares may be issued until all the shares are issued, and the amounts thereof are collected.

Between the years 2017 and 2021, the Board of Directors, when it deems necessary, and in compliance with the provisions of the Capital Markets Law, is authorized to increase the issued capital by issuing bearer shares up to the authorized capital ceiling, issue shares above or below their nominal values, and make decisions to partially or wholly restrict the rights of the shareholders to acquire new shares. The power to restrict new share buying rights may not be used in such a way to cause inequality between shareholders.

The capital of the company can be increased or decreased according to the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the Capital Markets Code

ISSUANCE OF SHARES

Article 8:

Shares are issued by resolutions of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Turkish Code of Commerce, Capital Markets Law, Capital Markets Board regulations and Capital Markets Legislations.

Resolutions of the Board of Directors in relation to issuing shares over or under the nominal value and restricting the shareholders' right to buy new shares in partial or in full are announced within the principles stipulated by the Capital Markets Board. This power to restrict the shareholders' right to buy new shares cannot be exercised toward creating inequalities among shareholders. In any event of capital increase, non-paid up shares will be distributed among the existing shares at the time of increase.

BONUS SHARES

Article 9:

In accordance with Capital Markets Law and relevant legislations; bonus shares, giving various rights, can be issued in any type and format with a resolution of the General Meeting.

If dividend coupons are separate from share certificates and bonus shares, they are deemed bearer coupons, and payments can be made to bearers thereof by the Company without making any investigation.

The provision of article 502 of the Turkish Trade Code is reserved.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

Article 10:

For the transfer of shares; Turkish Code of Commerce, Capital Markets Law, Capital Markets Regulations, other relevant regulations of Capital Markets legislations, Central Registration System rules and other relevant regulations on share dematerialization shall be observed.

CAPITAL MARKET INSTRUMENTS

Article 11:

In accordance with Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Markets Law, Capital Markets Board regulations and Capital Markets Legislations and other legislations in force; the Company may issue any kind of bonds, finance bonds, participation bonus shares, bonus shares, profit and loss sharing certificates, or other capital market instruments or negotiable instruments which are accepted or will be accepted by the Capital Markets Board for sale to real and legal entities at home and abroad.

No donations above the specified limit determined by the General Assembly can be made and donations made may be distributed, added on the distributable profit. Donations made by the Company should not contradict the regulations on the transfer of hidden revenues of the Capital Markets Law, the Turkish Commercial Code and other relevant legislation; required public disclosures should be made; and the donations made during one financial year should be submitted for the information of the shareholders in the General Assembly.

If required by the Company's activities, in the event where the significance criteria of the Capital Markets Law and the regulations of the Capital Markets Board are met and the transaction is considered "significant transaction", the General Assembly may invest the Board of Directors with power prior to carry out the "significant transactions".

ACCOUNTING PERIOD

Article 21:

As of 01/01/2004, the accounting period of the company is a calendar year, which starts on the first day of January, and ends on the last day of December.

DISTRIBUTION OF PROFIT

Article 22:

The net profit which remains after deducting amounts which are obliged to be paid and to be set aside by the company such as general expenses and various depreciations, as well as the statutory taxes payable by the company in its capacity as a legal entity from the amounts calculated at the end of the fiscal year, and which is shown on the annual balance sheet less losses of the previous year, if any, shall be distributed as follows in the order shown below.

Primary Legal Reserve Fund:

a) 5% is allocated as legal reserve.

First Dividend:

b) From the remainder, the first dividend is allocated with the ratios and amounts set by Capital Markets Board over the amount to be calculated by the addition of the donation made during the year.

c) After the above reductions are made, General Assembly is entitled to decide that the dividend may be distributed to Members of the Board, officers, employees and workers, bonus/founder bonus certificate owners, foundations established for various purposes and to people and institutions with similar natures.

Second Dividend:

d) After making the allotments from the net profit mentioned above in paragraphs (a), (b), (c); the General Assembly is entitled to distribute the remainder in part or in whole as second dividend or as extraordinary reserve fund.

Secondary Legal Reserve Fund:

e) One tenth of the amount found after deducting a dividend at rate of 5% of the paid-up capital from the portion decided to be distributed to the shareholders and others participating to profit is set aside as second legal reserve fund, as per paragraph (c), clause 2 in article 519 of Turkish Commercial Law.

Unless the legal reserves required by the legal provisions and the first dividend prescribed for the shareholders in the Articles of Association are allocated in cash and/or as shares; it cannot be decided to allocate another reserve fund, to transfer profit to the next year, it cannot be decided to distribute shares from the profit to the dividend/founder dividend certificate holders, privileged shareholders, foundations established for various purposes, and persons or organizations in similar nature mentioned in Article 4 of the Articles of Association. Also, if a second dividend is distributed from profits, share certificates without votes are entitled to benefit like the other shares, as much as their ratios of capital shares.

Share dividends are distributed without per diem deduction to all existing shares as of the end of the fiscal period, regardless of their issuance and acquisition dates.

Distribution form and time of the profits, which are decided to be distributed, shall be determined by the General Assembly upon the proposal of the Board of Directors on this issue.

Board of Directors, provided that it is authorized by the General Assembly, may distribute profit share advances, in accordance with Capital Markets Law Article 20 and relevant Capital Markets Board regulations. The authorization to distribute profit share advances, granted by the General Assembly to Board of Directors is limited to the year this authorization is given. Unless the previous year's profit share advances are completely settled, a resolution cannot be taken for giving an additional profit share advance and/or for distributing profit share advances.
